New Layaway contracts cannot be created if you have other delinquent Layaway contracts

- No partial cancellations are permitted
- Except where prohibited by law, there will be no price adjustments after 7 days from the

- date you initiate your Layaway. Multiple price adjustments on the same items are not permitted. Price adjustments are not allowed on seasonal or clearance merchandise
- Person initiating a Layaway contract must be the same person finalizing a Layaway. A picture ID is required for all new Layaways, pick ups and refunds
  - If you make a payment that is less than the minimum amount due, your payment due date is not advanced to the next biweekly payment. You are still obligated to fulfill the rest of the current payment balance before advancing to your next payment due date.

Additional Provisions for Online Layaway Customers

The merchandise must be available at the local store for pick up in order to be placed on Layaway. Items that are eligible for Layaway will be identified as "Available for Layaway" on the individual product page

You can manage your Layaway contract by accessing the layaway contract management functionality through www.kmart.com/layaway or click on your Open Orders in the Order Center section of your Profile

Layaway contract cancellations are not allowed online. Layaway cancellations can only be made in the store where you opened the contract

Layaway contracts must be picked up in the store where the merchandise is being held within 5 days after the final payment is made

Price adjustments cannot be facilitated online

* Except where prohibited by law, in which case the down payment would be less than that amount. See stores for state specific fee limitations. Down payment includes a $5 Service Fee for an 8-week contract and a $10 Service Fee for a 12-week contract. No partial cancellations are permitted. Cancellations can be made only in the store where you opened your contract.
